

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

If Sinclair is allowed to go forward with this stunt, democracy in this country is in deepening trouble. Only if they also showed, in a similar timeslot, "Fahrenheit 9/11" could this action be considere remotely evenhanded. And it would still be a poor idea.

Please, do not allow this abuse of the PUBLIC airwaves by Sinclair Broadcasting. This campaign has had quite enough mudslinging already.

Thank you,
